The Honorable Franklin G. Floete
Administrator
General Services Administration
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Floete:

As you know, an exception to the dispersion standards has been granted to the Central Intelligence Agency for the construction of its headquarters building within the ten mile radius of Washington, D. C.

For your general information and retention I am enclosing copies of the exchange of correspondence between the Honorable Arthur S. Flemming, Director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, and Mr. Dulles during November and December of 1954. In addition, I am enclosing a copy of my letter to Mr. Flemming informing him of our decision to locate our new building at Langley, Virginia.

If you would like to have any other information, please feel free to call upon me.

Sincerely,

25X1
